ZEBEDEE’S SURPRISE

In Saint Matthew’s gospel for the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, we see the call of Simon Peter, Andrew, James, and John. Jesus called all 4 young men to follow Him so that they might become “fishers of men.” Imagine Zebedee’s surprise as his two sons, James and John, immediately followed Jesus and left him sitting in his boat! Would you be surprised if your son or daughter, grandson or granddaughter, expressed an interest in the priesthood or religious life? Would you be willing to encourage that interest? Religious vocations come from faithful families willing to see these vocations as viable options for their children. Do what you can to promote religious vocations, especially from within your own family!

RESPECT FOR LIFE

Forty-four years ago this weekend, abortion became legal in our country. We know, of course, that just because something is legal, it doesn’t necessarily make it right. Pray for all couples who face an unplanned pregnancy that they might choose life. Pray, especially, for those pregnant women who must face their pregnancies alone with little to no support.
