A NEW YEAR – A NEW START...

We read in Saint Luke’s gospel for the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, that Jesus is the fulfillment of the predictions put forth by the prophet Isaiah. Jesus brought glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, sight to the blind, and He freed the oppressed. 2019 is a new year and it gives us a new start. In our own day and age, can we do any of the things mentioned above, perhaps with a “modern day” twist? Pray that the Holy Spirit might prompt you to evangelize others in new and creative ways.

PARISH CLUSTER WISHES...

We remember in prayer the repose of the soul of Father Jerry Verdick, a priest of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. Father Verdick died on January 14, 2019 in Lakefield, Minnesota at the age of 86. He once served Saint Mary Parish in Dundee. May he rest in peace.
