IN YOUR NATIVE PLACE...

Saint Luke's gospel for the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time finds Jesus preaching to the crowds in his hometown of Nazareth. In one moment, all in the synagogue are amazed at what Jesus teaches. In the next moment, they are ready to throw Him over a cliff. It is not easy to preach the Gospel or to be prophetic in your native place. Yet, this is what we are ultimately called to do. All of us, together, preach the gospel in season and out of season; when convenient and when inconvenient. Pray for the strength to be a fearless "hometown" prophet!

2019 CHURCH CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES...

By now, all parishioners of Saint Gabriel Parish should have received by mail their 2019 church support envelopes. If you did not yet receive your new contribution envelopes by mail, please let me know.

PARISH CLUSTER WISHES...

In your charity, please remember the repose of the soul of Father Joseph LaPlante, a priest of our diocese who was buried on January 25, 2019. Father LaPlante spent many years in the military, after which he returned to the diocese to serve in parishes and at our seminary in Winona. May he rest in peace.
