FROM THE DESK OF MONSIGNOR HEITING
 THE PATH TO FORGIVENESS...

In Saint Matthew’s gospel for the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, we see an explanation (and a path) for both personal forgiveness and sacramental forgiveness. Personal forgiveness involves the ability to humbly confront, draw in witnesses if necessary, and to even involve advice from the church if that is needed. Sacramental forgiveness involves us going to the Sacrament of Reconciliation to be absolved of our sins, reconciling once again with God, with the church, and with the whole Christian community. How are we doing in our use of both paths of forgiveness?

HELP WANTED...

Do you have a boiler’s license? Are you interested in getting one? Do you know someone who has a boiler’s license? We are looking to hire someone to check the Saint Gabriel church and school boilers once a day this fall and winter. If interested, please contact Msgr. Paul, Tom Appel or Randy Kremer. Are you interested in being hired to clean Saint Gabriel church and school this fall and winter? If interested please contact Msgr. Paul, Tom Appel, or Randy Kremer.

A FRIENDLY REQUEST...

If you send me a text, I am certainly happy to respond to it. However, I do not have all of your names/phone numbers in the contact list of my phone. Recently, I have received texts bearing messages and phone numbers I do not recognize, and the sender fails to identify who they are. This has caused me to text back: “Who are you?” So, please, if you send me a text, include your name either at the beginning or the end of your message. Thank you!
