JESUS CHRIST: NOW AND FOREVER...

In Saint Matthew's gospel for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we see the Pharisees foiled in their attempt to trap Jesus in His speech. To whom does one owe allegiance, to God or to the government? Our Lord responded: "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar; give to God what belongs to God." In giving His reply, Jesus wasn't simply "ahead of his time" in His division of church and state. More than that, our Lord actually transcends time, and is present in every age, circumstance, conflict, and resolution. Jesus Christ: now and forever. This is our prayer and our cry!

CONGRATULATIONS!

We heartily congratulate the 18 Confirmation candidates from our parishes in Fulda, Currie, Slayton, Iona, and Lake Wilson who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend from Bishop Quinn. Through this sacrament, may the Holy Spirit continue to descend upon these young people as they continue to live out their Catholic faith. Special thanks to our Confirmation Coordinators from the Fulda and Slayton clusters: Peg Olsem, Dawn Kopperud, Joyce Vortherms, and Marcie Cowen. Owing to the work of these four ladies, our Confirmation candidates were more than well prepared!

NOTICE TO SAINT GABRIEL PARISHIONERS...

Please take note that due to an out-of-town funeral on Friday, October 23rd, there will NOT be an 8:30 AM Mass that morning in Fulda. Please call, text, or email our normal Friday morning "Mass crowd" so that they get this message. Thank you!

PARISH CLUSTER WISHES...

Congratulations and best wishes to Immaculate Heart of Mary parishioners Lucas Alan and Joyce Marie (DeSmet) Radke on the baptism of their son, Gideon Grayson Radke on October 10, 2020 at the parish in Currie.
